

DOWIE IS DEAD IN ZION CITY

Founder Of The Great Religious Sect Passes Away Early This Morning.

ONLY ONE FRIEND AT HIS BEDSIDE

The Man Who Founded Dowieism Passes Away Deserted And Alone In Shiloh House.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, March 9.—John Alexander Dowie died today. He passed away at seven forty this morning at Shiloh House, Zion City. There was present at his demise only Judge D. N. Barnes and two personal attendants. For the past five weeks Dowie has been gradually failing, but death was not looked for. Shortly before one this morning he became delirious and slowly became weaker and weaker. No arrangements have as yet been made for his funeral.

John Alexander Dowie was born in Edinburgh sixty years ago. He spent several years attending a theological seminary in his native city and then went to Sydney, New South Wales. He was studying the doctrines of the Congregational church when, reading his Bible, he began his contentions that Christ meant to cure the body as well as the soul. He held that prayer, accompanied by the laying on of hands, would effect the cure required. He began the propa-

One of his most spectacular efforts was that for the regeneration of Greater New York. Oct. 14, 1903, eight special trains, bearing something like four thousand of the faithful, headed by the prophet, left Chicago for the eastern metropolis. The crusade was to cost not less than $200,000. Dowie hired Madison Square Garden, but the people would not go to his meetings. He gave up the crusade and went back to Zion City, there to be sued by his creditors, another indication of the approaching end.

Zion City became restless and Dowie decided upon a trip around the world. He went to Australia, whence he cabled of great successes in his work. Two days after his cable message was sent he was mobbed in Sydney. He returned home by way of Europe. His trip had cost nearly a million dollars and had proven an utter failure. Arriving at Zion City once more he found himself in financial trouble. Still the man kept on. He managed to raise $400,000 and had all bankruptcy proceedings canceled.

Last October he was stricken with paralysis while on his way to Mexico, where he contemplated the founding of another Zion City. His condition improved somewhat and he returned to the United States, but it was only for a short time. He soon found himself obliged again to seek a warmer climate. Before departing for Mexico a second time he appointed one of his followers, Voliva, who had been his principal agent in Australia, as general overseer. But the crisis was fast approaching. A considerable element of Dowie's followers had begun to lose faith in the so-called prophet. Scandal became rife. The man who had declared he could do no wrong was said to have urged polygamy on his followers and his name was coupled unhappily with those of certain women of his colony. Finally an open revolt broke forth in Zion City and Voliva proclaimed Dowie a deceiver and threatened the misuse of funds if he returned. Dowie, however, was not to be deterred. Rallying his fast-failing strength he left Mexico and hurried back to Chicago. Zion City refused to receive him and he appealed to the courts for assistance. Voliva fought him at every step and had the support of most of the influential members of Zion. Dowie was permitted to return to Shiloh House and to hold services at intervals in the tabernacle, but he failed to secure a restoration of his former power.

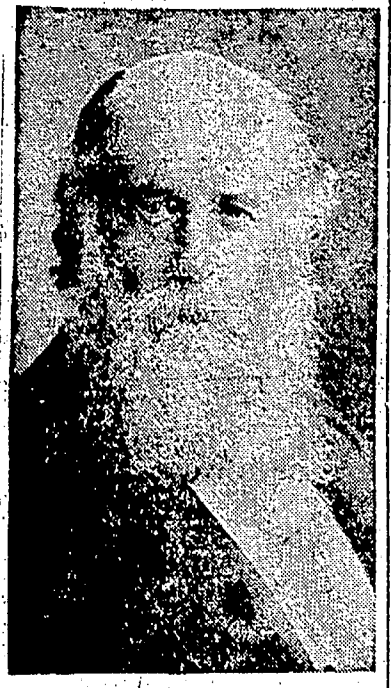

The career of Dowie was one of strange contrasts. He showed, in the building of Zion City, the assembling of factories and business interests, the organization of large enterprises like that of the New York crusade, executive genius of a high order. But in religious matters he was either a self-hypnotized hysteric or a knave. He was said to possess a strong veil of Scotch mysticism—fruitful soil for the self-suggestion that resulted in his boast that he was the prophet foretold by the prophet Malachi. On the other hand, however, stood his ever-recurring demand for money. Millions poured into his hands, yet he asked for more. The wildest spendthrift could not match Dowie for schemes to rid himself of money. It is estimated that the invasion of New York by the Zion army cost $350,000, and the trip was a flat failure.

While the people were starving and the city under the shadow of a receiver, Dowie spent $150,000 in a Mexican irrigation colonization scheme. He paid for options which he could not take up and then made a trip around the world, which cost a fortune.

The sumptuous furnishings of his library and offices in the administration building at Zion City cost $50,000. He had 10,000 volumes of the rarest editions of English and French authors, which cost easily another $25,000. Shiloh House, where Dowie lived, is the largest house in Zion and was furnished luxuriously. His country house in Michigan cost $20,000.

Dowie never explained where the money came from, which paid for all these luxuries. The consensus of opinion, however, was that he bled his followers, which gave him his start, and by good business ability and real estate speculation managed to amass a fortune which was estimated at one time to amount to several millions. The extravagances and disasters of the last few years, however, swept away the entire fabric.

gation of his belief, but became so boisterous that he was several times lodged in jail. It finally became too warm for him and he went to Melbourne, where, in 1878 he set up the "Free Christian Tabernacle." Fever was raging in the country, and he began his practice of "laying on of hands." There was more opposition and he left Australia.

In 1888 he landed in San Francisco. He had his wife and two children and little money. Dowie's money-getting ability was soon demonstrated. He gathered sufficient funds to go to Chicago in 1892. Then began the remarkable career which soon attracted world-wide attention.

It was the year of the Chicago world's fair and Dowie set up a tabernacle just outside the exposition grounds. The doctrines he expounded were the seedlings of those he developed later. They were not new. They held that disease was a real thing, but was due to evil, which, in turn, was the work of the devil. Dowie came before the people with a peculiarly strong power of magnetism, a compelling force of suggestion. The people saw, heard and acted. Thousands enlisted under the banner of the man. They were convinced that he was what he proclaimed himself to be, and possibly what, in his hysteria he believed himself to be, a second Elijah. Within a few years he had built up palatial quarters and maintained homes, schools, a bank, a weekly paper and various other institutions to promote his schemes. He paid thousands of dollars weekly to rent the largest halls in Chicago and these were packed to hear him rant about the newspapers which denounced him, the preachers and medical men. He and his family lived in regal state. His son, Gladstone, graduated from one of the best universities in the country and his daughter likewise was well educated.

He went to New York in a special train, accompanied by a large retinue of servants and no end of baggage. From New York he sailed for Europe, paying $1,500 for staterooms on the steamer Graf Waldersee. In London he lived in royal state, at the Hotel Cecil.

Then came the execution of another of the man's great projects—the purchase of 6,000 acres of land at Paukegan, Ill., as a site for Zion City, and the next day a call upon his people for another $1,000,000.

Following quickly on these decisive steps, Dowie began a campaign for the regeneration of London. He was jeered and hooted and mobbed. He went across the channel and met a like reception. He returned to London, only to have the treatment repeated, and then he abandoned the world's metropolis.

DR. CONDON IS TO UNVEIL MONUMENT

Survivor of Manchester Incident Will Speak at Demonstration for Irish Martyrs.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Dublin, March 9.—Patriotic Irishmen are preparing to turn out in force tomorrow on the occasion of the unveiling of the Manchester martyrs' memorial at Tipperary. Plans for the unveiling have been going forward for a long time and it is believed tomorrow's demonstration will be one of the most notable of its kind that Ireland has seen in recent years. It is eminently fitting that the man chosen to unveil the memorial is none other than Dr. Edmond O'Meara, Dr. Condon of Atchison, Kas. Forty years ago Dr. Condon stood in the dock, a fellow prisoner of Allan, Lark and Gould. He was tried on the same evidence, identified by the same witnesses, convicted and sentenced to death by the same judges. But the evidence against him was later granted a reprieve, while his fellow prisoners went to death on the scaffold. Dr. Condon, in his speech from the dock at Manchester on the occasion of his conviction and sentence to death, uttered a phrase, which has since become historic: "I have nothing to say in concluding his speech, to regret or to take back. I can only say: 'God save Ireland.'"

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Trouble—A Janesville Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders.
That is just where the danger lies.
You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease.
The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys.
Janesville people testify to permanent cures.

Mrs. Annie Kohlfelt, of 230 Cherry St., Janesville, Wis., says:

"Since using Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago for kidney troubles and backache, I have had no hesitation in recommending them to every sufferer I have met. I had used remedy after remedy and tried plasters and did everything I knew of for these complaints, but the trouble grew continually worse, and was fast undermining my general health. About 7 years ago I was in a very bad condition, and it was at that time that I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at the Peoples' Drug Co. and began using them. Good results followed quickly and a continued treatment brought me a complete cure.

I have never had any kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills.

DAVID JEFFRIS'
LIFE IS ENDED

PASSED AWAY DURING NIGHT AFTER LONG AND USEFUL LIFE.

PROMINENT IN CIVIC LIFE

Came to Janesville in 1846—Has Done Much to Build up City He Made His Home.

David Jeffris, one of Janesville's oldest and most respected citizens passed away shortly after one o'clock this morning after a brief illness. Mr. Jeffris had long been one of Janesville's foremost citizens and his death removes another of the pioneer settlers who came to Janesville in an early day and saw it grow from a village to its present size. Mr. Jeffris had always been prominent in matters pertaining to the city's best interests and his death leaves a vacant place that will be hard to fill. In business, church or social life he had been a true friend and an earnest counselor and he will be sorely missed by his sorrowing family and lifelong friends.

Came in Forty-six.
David Jeffris was born in Grayson county, Kentucky, August 6, 1821. His father was a son of Thomas Jeffris, a revolutionary war soldier and came from the Jeffris family who came to America from the north of Ireland in the eighteenth century. With his parents Mr. Jeffris moved to Coles county, Illinois, when but nine, living during his boyhood years at Charleston. He aided his father in the work on the farm and learned his first lessons in the lumber business which at-terwards became his life's work. In 1846 he accompanied Colonel Anderson, a cattle drover, to Janesville arriving here June 8. This county has since been his home. For several years he dealt in cattle, but in 1851 purchased 240 acres of land near Janesville and became a farmer.

Moves Into City.
In 1857 Mr. Jeffris removed to Janesville and engaged in the lumber business. For many years he was one of the leading contractors of the city, building over four hundred and nineteen structures including churches, hotels, stores, business blocks and residences. For thirty years he led an exceedingly busy life. He was one of the founders of the Janesville Machine company and was also interested in the organization of the Merchants & Mechanics' bank. He retired from active business in 1896 and has since that time devoted his energy to handling his large business interests.

Mr. Jeffris has been closely identified with the Congregational church, being for many years a trustee of that society, and in politics was a republican, having been honored on many occasions by this party.

His Family.
Mr. Jeffris was united in marriage to Miss Grace Mout on November 14, 1850. Nine children blessed this union, one dying in infancy. Mrs.
Jeffris passed to the world beyond on August 28, 1900. Others of the family who have preceded the father to the land of rest were Thomas M. Margaret and Helen Jane. Four sons, William S. Jeffris, M. G. Jeffris, David K. Jeffris and Fred J. Jeffris, and daughter Susan Alice Jeffris are left to mourn his loss. The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at three o'clock from his late residence, 35 S. Jackson street, Rev. R. C. Denison officiating.

Allen J. Ingersoll
At his home, 152 South Jackson street, funeral services over the remains of the late Allen J. Ingersoll were held this afternoon at half-past two o'clock. Rev. R. C. Denison was the officiating clergyman. The attendance of respecting and loving friends was large and floral offerings were many and beautiful. There was a magnificent cross and crown rites will be interred next May, when Mr. Ingersoll's son and other relatives will be here.

Mrs. Ethel Ellis Trow.
Mrs. Ethel W. Trow, formerly Miss Ethel May Ellis of this city, passed away at her home in Genoa Junction Tuesday night, March 5. She had been ill but a short time and the end came very unexpectedly to all. Burial was in Genoa Junction. The deceased was born in Milton, Junction, March 1, 1881, being the daughter of

SIXTEEN NEW BOOKS
AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

Three of Particular interest—Christian Science by Mark Twain and Peter Pan by Barrie.

Sixteen new books have been placed on the shelves of the Janesville public library recently and are now at the disposal of the public. Particular interest is attached to several.
Mark Twain's book on Christian Science is in demand and will no doubt prove one of the most widely read this year. "Camping and Woodcraft" by Horace Kephart is pronounced one of the most excellent volumes in its class and local critics place it above all others in the library. "Peter Pan" by J. M. Barrie is as unique as it is beautiful. Illustrations and the text are grouped in a section of the volume separate from the printed story. On this story is found the play of "Peter Pan," in which Maude Adams is now starring. "The Port of Missing Men" is by Meredith Nicholson, author of "The House of a Thousand Candles" and "Business Organization" is a work of Professor Spaulding of the school of commerce at Wisconsin university.

Following is the complete list:
Port of Missing Men, by Meredith Nicholson.
Friday the 13th, by Thomas W.
Lawson.
Christian Science, by Mark Twain.
Peter Pan, by J. M. Barrie. Illustrated by Arthur Rackham.
Rich Men's Children, by Geraldine Bonner.

Lonely Lady of Grosvenor Square, by Mrs. Henry De La Pasture.

Hendricks, by Gilbert Chesterton.

The Story of the Outlaw, by Emerson Hough.

Edgerton, Wis., March 7.—Within a very few days the wire connections will be completed at the new depot and the traffic will be carried on there. The old depot was erected in 1853 and the public waiting room in early years served as audience room for the church service, elections and such other public meetings as were held and the station was then called "Tulton Depot." A few years later the name was changed to Edgerton, after B. K. Edgerton, the civil engineer who surveyed the line of the railroad. History tells us that the first passenger car came through here in January, 1855. The road went no further, than to Stoughton, at that time. For many years the old depot has been too limited in size, to accommodate the increased patronage of the railroad. It is now converted into a freight room, this being one of the heaviest freight towns on the line, the tobacco industry making constant shipments to the eastern markets and the manufacturing department of the tobacco leaf making the winter passenger traffic to and fro far above the average for a city of an equal population.

Stranger Believed to be J. W. Rawson of River Falls Met Terrible Death.
Last Evening.

J. W. Rawson, a stranger, whose home is believed to have been in River Falls, Wis., was run down by the 9:15 vestibule on the Northwestern road near the local passenger depot last evening. Officer William Mason and Charles Thompson, with considerable difficulty, got the victim out from under the wheels after the train had come to a stop. The body was terribly mangled, both legs being cut off just below the knees and the neck, back, and several ribs being broken.
Drs. W. H. Palmer and E. F. Woods were summoned and on examination found the man beyond all human aid.
He died within a few minutes after their arrival. The remains were taken to Kimball's morgue and when the personal effects were examined a railroad ticket to River Falls, Wis., and a membership card in the Star of Hope lodge of Odd Fellows at Cameron, Missouri, a silver watch, 25 cents in cash, and some letters, were discovered. Rawson was a man about fifty years of age, well dressed, and wore a heavy overcoat. His right arm had been amputated near the shoulder several years ago. The man appears to have deliberately stepped in front of the locomotive, but whether he did so absent-mindedly or with deliberate intent to end his life may always remain a question. No one appears to have noticed his movement, until the engine struck him.

City Marshal Appleby this afternoon received the following telegram from River Falls ordering him to have the body of Mr. Rawson shipped to that city.

Have seen Noble Grand Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Take charge of J. W. Rawson. Send body here immediately. Advise what train body

NEW METHODS POPULAR.

In the past few years there has been a wonderful change throughout the country in the handling of milk for family consumption. It was only a few years ago when all of the milk for city and village use was delivered in bulk, but now a great deal is delivered in pint and quart bottles.

Pasteurized milk delivered in bottles and carefully sealed with pulp caps is more appetizing than when it is measured out by the milk man and put in some open dish of the consumer. The sterilized bottles can be set most any place where it is cool, provided the cap is kept on, and there is no reason for removing it until the consumer is ready to use the milk.

With the open pan it is different; the place where it is set must be clean and cool and protected from dust which is not always easy to do. The pasteurized bottled milk can be kept in the refrigerator with vegetables, but milk kept in pans or crocks will take up the flavors of the surrounding atmosphere, and very often make it more or less unpalatable.

Pasteurization eliminates also all possible contagion and germ matter. Telephone your order or stop one of the five wagons.

ARGUED IN FAVOR OF LEAF MAN'S MEASURE

Messrs. Heddles, Fisher and Norcross Appeared Before Agricultural Committee Thursday.

A. L. Fisher and Stewart B. Heddles of Janesville and F. W. Coon of Edgerton, members of the legislative committee of the Leaf Tobacco Growers & Dealers' Association (now incorporated) of Wisconsin, appeared before the agricultural committee of the legislature at Madison on Thursday in behalf of the bill asking for an annual appropriation of $1,500 for developing the tobacco growing industry in the state. They were ably assisted by Assemblyman Pliny Norcross, who made a strong address in favor of the measure, and each of the delegation gave expression to his views and arguments on the subject. The proposed appropriation, if granted, will be used for providing premiums for exhibits at the annual meetings, for publishing the reports of the pure types of seed best suited for the leaf culture in this state. The importance of fostering this industry in Wisconsin which already stands first among the clear-leaf growing states, can scarcely be overestimated.

FARMERS HERE TO ORGANIZE UNIONS

Over Fifty Are Assembled at the Courthouse This Afternoon—William Connors Elected Chairman.

Over fifty farmers from various sections of the county assembled at the courthouse this afternoon at the call of a committee consisting of R. R. Resseguie, J. A. Decker, George Hollins, Charles E. Johnson, S. A. Gardner, John Turnbull, H. E. Holmes and C. W. McCarthy. The purpose of this mass meeting was to organize a county and a city branch of the "American Society of Equity and send delegates to the state meeting to be held in Madison on March 21. C. W. McCarthy called this afternoon's session "to order and William Connors was named as temporary chairman. Atty. J. T. Cunningham, who has a farm on the Magnolia road and who was present at the session, was elected secretary. H. E. Holmes then took the floor and in a lengthy address set forth the objects and benefits of the proposed organization. He called attention to the fact that hump-croppers had not meant prosperity for the farmer, not because there was not a demand for all the produce in some part of the world, but because the grower insisted upon dumping it on the market in the space of a few weeks while the middle-men disburied it over months at prices which he, himself, regulated. Last season, he said, 12 million bushels more of wheat were produced than during the previous one, yet the value of the crop had decreased to such an extent that in its totality the crop was worth $40,000,000 less than the smaller one. Hundreds of thousands of dollars, he said, had also been lost on the tobacco crop. The society proposes to bring about a method of marketing its own crops by co-operation as well as governing the so-called over-supply. Officers of the two unions will be elected this afternoon and one delegate chosen for every ten members.

PRESTON FORGED A NAME TO BIG NOTE

Man Who Committed Suicide Was About to Reap Harvest For His Crimes.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, March 9.—That Leonidas M. Preston, secretary and manager of the Timken Roller company, had forged the name of E. R. Hewitt, one of the members of the company, to notes aggregating $57,000 to a $100,000 note was the substance of the statement made to the coroner today by James A. Shea, counsel for Mrs. Preston. Preston died at the Hotel Cumberland Thursday after drinking Prussian acid.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Representatives John L. Burnett of Alabama, William S. Bennett of New York and Benjamin F. Howell of New Jersey are to comprise the immigration commission that is to travel abroad this coming summer for the purpose of studying the question of immigration. Representative Watson of Indiana was offered a place on the commission, but declined.

West Virginia is among the states that have fallen into line with anti-laboring lobby. The measure introduced in the legislature of that state provides that firms and corporations having agents working for or against legislation must file with the secretary of state previously to the session the name of such agent and legislation affected with a fee of $10. Penalties are provided for failure to do so.

In the whole history of congress, covering a period of 118 years, there are only two of its members who have a record of more than forty years of service—Justin S. Morrill of Vermont and William B. Allison of Iowa. John Sherman's house and senate career combined was six years less than Mr. Morrill's and four short of Mr. Allison's as it stands today. In aggregate continuous service in both houses Morrill stands ahead of all others. He was elected to the house in November, 1854, serving twelve years from March 4, 1855, and stepping from the house directly into the senate. He died Dec. 28, 1898, aged 83, still a senator, with an unbroken congressional career of forty-four years lacking sixty-six days.

West Virginia is among the states that have fallen into line with anti-laboring lobby. The measure introduced in the legislature of that state provides that firms and corporations having agents working for or against ort Conkey and Sherman Hunt, and City Clerk Robert Joos, the latter being charged with embezzlement of the city funds and malfeasance in office. Potter and the deputies, it is said, have misused funds to the extent of $75,000.

The valuable lesson of Lawson's exposures is that they prove that wealth made by speculation is for the privileged few.

The plain, unprivileged citizen who seeks wealth without work and who must get rich in a hurry is generally poorer before he is richer. Nevertheless a little money is handy when the opportunity comes for legitimate investment and the place to keep it during the waiting period is in one of our certificates of deposit.

Payable on demand, drawing interest from the date of deposit and bringing you 2 per cent if you only have to wait 4 months for that investment and three per cent if you are delayed six months or longer.

THE RAMBLER RUNABOUT AT $950

One positive item found in all Rambler Cars is the full amount of claimed horse power. The Rambler Runabout for instance has 16 horse-double opposed engine, and every bit of the power is there, too. It is so easy to boost the power of an engine on paper, but what about the proof. Ramblers point to their long years of use and their wonderful road and hill actions as proof positive of the actual power and general stability.

MODEL 27 RUNABOUT for this year is the cream of modern priced cars.

Don't take anybody's word for it, see for yourself. All the new models are here—touring cars, double and four cylinders. I shall be glad to have you ride in any of them. Telephone, write or call.

Here's For Uncle Isaac!

Eau Claire Leader: The Milwaukee Free Press brushes away the dust and clearly explains. The Hon. Isaac Stephenson wants to be United States senator and promises to want it for only two years, and the Free Press dwelling upon his loyalty to principle and great service to the party, does not believe that any Wisconsin republican will question Mr. Stephenson's claim.

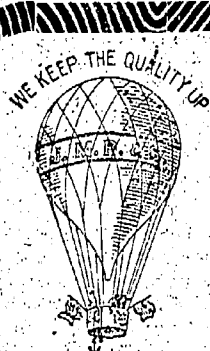

Surely not and here's a hand to the venerable citizen of Marinette, whose wealth and safe, clear-headedness will allow him to take no back seat in the senate of the nation.

The unbounded ambitions of Wisconsin's able congressional delegation will have to be curbed at this time. Marinette money talks, and Uncle Isaac has the pole. Two years hence,
